

2018 GRAND VIEW UNIVERSITY PREMIER SOCCER CAMP

JULY 30-AUGUST 1
9:00 a.m.-Noon

WHAT WILL THE CAMP PROVIDE?

The Grand View Premier Camp will offer each camper an opportunity to be exposed to the tactical and physical demands of college soccer through competitive drills organized and executed by the Grand View University coaching staff. These sessions will contain the following key factors in development:

- competition environment
- decision making
- technical repetition
- individual tactical/technical development

All aspects of the training will encourage and demand player accountability. All players will receive constructive feedback through the sessions and a post-camp evaluation form.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Each registered camper will receive a camp T-shirt.
- Each camper should bring a soccer ball each day.
- In case of inclement weather check for updates on twitter @gvumensoccer.
- Augie Gutierrez and Al Driscoll, Grand View assistant men's soccer coaches, will run the sessions along with current and former Grand View players.
